Re: Headley v. New York City Fire Department, 11 Civ. 5112 (CBA) (CLP)

Dear Judge Amon:

We represent Tennyson Headley, the plaintiff in the above-referenced action. By letter dated May 7, 2012, counsel for defendant New York City Fire Department requested a pre-motion conference to discuss defendant's intention to file a motion pursuant to FRCP 12(b)(6) to dismiss Mr. Headley's complaint. See Docket Entry No. 11.

Mr. Headley initially filed his complaint pro se on October 20, 2011. See Docket Entry No. 1. Subsequent to this, he retained my firm, and we intend to file an amended complaint on his behalf pursuant to FRCP 15(a)(1). In light of defendant's May 7th letter as well as our upcoming initial conference with Magistrate Judge Pollak, scheduled for May 17, 2012, we thought it appropriate to inform the court and defendant of our intention. We are happy to discuss this, along with any other matters the court wishes to address, at the May 17th conference.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Aimee E. Saginaw, Esq.
